Shane runs home to warn his family about the strange creature at their border.

He speaks as quickly as possible and convinces his uncle to go inspect with him.

The creature sees a horse with a horn running his way with a strange dust cloud following him around.

They talk a little about the grass at the border.

Wait! The dust seems to change...
As soon as Shane starts to feel less scared of the giraffe, the giraffe can see him.

Now Shane can talk to, walk and play with his border friend the giraffe.

#Insta STORY BOOKS

You're holding a Hollard InstaStory Book!

It's part of a series of original books created using Instagram Stories. Together with Kago Ya Bana, we've been able to create more opportunities to help kids to read.

Find out how we are using social media for social good at www.hollard.co.za/better-futures/InstaStoryBooks

KYB LET'S MAKE ECD HAPPEN.

Shy Strong Shane

Meet Shane the unicorn.
He is a border guard and today he has dawn duty.

What a strange creature!

Shane has never seen such a long neck and so many spots.

Shane sternly tells the creature to get away from their border and stands confused as the creature just carries on eating.

Shane sternly tells the creature to get away from their border and stands confused as the creature just carries on eating.